An unforgettable stay filled with warmth, beauty, and true Dalmatian hospitality

Our stay at Holiday Home Rakova in Gornje Selo, Šolta was absolutely perfect and one of the best holiday experiences we have ever had. We spent the International Workers' Day holiday there and enjoyed a wonderful barbecue weekend with friends, and everything was simply flawless. The outdoor fireplace and barbecue area are first-class – truly perfect for a proper Mediterranean grill gathering. Our hosts thoughtfully prepared firewood for us, along with beautiful local Šolta olive oil, which made everything feel even more special and authentic. From the very moment we arrived, we felt genuinely welcomed. A lovely welcome drink, local wine, and warm hospitality were waiting for us, setting the tone for a truly special stay. And when we were leaving, Ina and her family surprised us with the most beautiful farewell gifts – traditional sugar-coated almonds, homemade carob liqueur, their own local olive oil, and a wonderful souvenir that we will keep with great affection. These are the kinds of gestures that stay with you long after the holiday ends. The house itself is exceptional – spotlessly clean, impeccably maintained, and designed with such care that it genuinely feels like a family home created with love, not just a rental property for guests. Every single detail reflects taste, quality, and attention. During our stay, there was not one single thing we needed that wasn't already there. The kitchen is fully equipped with absolutely everything: quality cookware, dishwasher, oven, coffee machine, toaster, kettle, refrigerator, washing machine – truly everything one could need. The private heated outdoor pool was fantastic, beautifully maintained, and perfect both during the day and in the evening. The outdoor dining area, terrace, sun loungers, patio, stone barbecue, garden, private parking, and complete privacy made the entire experience even more comfortable.

As authentic as it can get!

Everything about this stay was so idyllic and enjoyable that it's hard to pick only a few details. Brand new house and facilities made us feel as at home. The host is a wonderful lady from whom one can learn a lot about Šolta. House and the yard are perfectly clean, and the environment very safe and calm. Great location to explore the island and all the treasures it has to offer, in any season. We hope to be Rakova guests again one day.

A isola di Solta in famiglia

La casa è bellissima, nuova fatta nel modo di rispettare al massimo lo stile delle case Soltane in pietra. offre tutti i comfort ed è pet friendly. Spazi esterni molto belli, piscina è solo un tocco in più. Tantissime baie nelle vicinanze dove poter fare bagno nel mare cristallino, fare snorkeling. Nelle baie, se avete possibilità potete arrivare anche affittando quad nel paese vicino Rogac con i prezzi più che onesti. Supermercato a 400 mt dove lavorano signore del paese simpaticissime con vero spirito Dalmato. Sto arrivando alla parte migliore; padroni di casa. Persone bellissime, non vi sentirete per niente ospiti ma bensì parte della famiglia. Ci hanno accolto con pane fresco fatto in casa, sono sempre stati disponibili, non invadenti. Al nostro check out ci hanno salutato con i regali da portare a casa. Bellissime vacanze, Šolta da rivedere.
